Gentlemen

I recd your package Saturday. I will keep all you sent provided you allow me a fee of $3.68 on the coins I send in payment.

Total value of coins sent me 46.76
" " No 1162 returned 2.- on approval
Face " " coin sent you $44.76

Under ordinary circumstances would not ask you to do this favor, but I am trying to pay off a mortgage and am saving all I can for this purpose.

Very Truly Yours

Your postal of 19th inst. On the amount of goods shiped me you made a charge of $3.68. There is no place in your catalog of June 3 or 4 1903 in which you claim any per from the purchaser of any price or lot, Consequently there is nothing due from me to you.

The coins I sent you are worth more than face value to you. D L. Giegler of this City will pay you 60 cents each for the ½ dollars of 1826. that I sent you, write him and see if that is not so, If on Nov 1. 1903. You have not sold enough of said coins to make you a profit of $3.68 notify me. The gold dollars on back of card were not as represented,

Truly Yours.

Gentlemen

On the 11th of June you sent me by Express a lot of coins bid off at your sale amounting to the sum of $36.80

At same time you sent on approval coins to the value of 9.96

Total $46.76

On June 15. I sent you Nº 1162 coin returned $2.-
and a lot of silver by Southern Express 44.76
$46.76

From the above you will see that I do not owe you anything. You claim a commission of $3.68 (10% of amount bid off at sale.) Your catalogue did not state that you would charge a commission and I wont pay one. Being in the trade imagine that you have sold the old coins I sent you at a profit of at least $3.68. Trusting this will be satisfactory and end the correspondence

I am very truly Yours H.E. Buck

Gentlemen

Enclosed find 51 cents in stamps to balance my account. I think I sent you 44¢ but as I am not infallible send the difference anyway. Trust you had a successful & pleasant trip to Europe. Wonder if you attended the Schulman sale in Amsterdam. All of my Ancestors was hung in that place many years ago on account of his religious views.

Respectfully Yours

Gentlemen

I herewith return the two Malta coins being unable to sell them readily. We have had such a lot of severe weather that it has been impossible to get around in Northern Ohio without great risk of health.
I also return ½ Dol 1803. I think you must have made a mistake in the price. Adams sale 2/2/04 a good to V good sold for .85[c] Barnet sale 1/8/04 small 3 V g sold for .85.
Of course I am in honor & financially bound to take it but if you can sell it to the other fellow who might have bid 3.25 for it please let him have it & charge me with the difference. If you are unable to dispose of it for any reason return to me and I will pay for it. Enclosed find check for $19.32
Have you a close market for mutilated silver. I have the following gold cost me 10% over face will divide with you anything over that amount that you may be able to get for them.
